ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Petitioner Tosha Andrews, Administrator of the Estate of Sara D. Culp, also known as Sara D. Andrews (“Estate”), deceased, by counsel, pursuant to Va. Code §§ 8.01-316 and 317, requests the Court’s entry of an Order of Publication in order to obtain service upon William Dale Andrews, Jr. (“Mr. Andrews”) for the purpose of conducting a court hearing at which the proceeds of a settlement of the Estate’s claim for the wrongful death of Sara Andrews will be allocated among the decedent’s statutory beneficiaries. After an extensive investigation with the assistance of a private investigator to identify and locate statutory beneficiaries of Sara Andrews’ Estate, a certain William Dale Andrews, Jr. was identified as a possible surviving child of the decedent, and therefore potentially a statutory beneficiary. Efforts to locate Mr. Andrews, or even confirm that he is alive and a statutory beneficiary of the Estate, have failed. Counsel for the petitioner has submitted an Affidavit for Order of Publication, in which counsel states under oath that diligence has been used without effect to ascertain Mr. Andrews’ address and location.

WHEREUPON, the Court finds that a substantial effort has been undertaken to locate Mr. Andrews and confirm that he is alive and a beneficiary of the Estate, without effect. The Court further finds that efforts to locate Mr. Andrews constitute due diligence within the meaning of Va. Code § 8.01-316.

THERFORE, the Court ORDERS the following:

- a. That William Dale Andrews, Jr. take notice of his right to appear at this Court in person, or by telephone as provided in the Notice of Hearing attached to this Order, and to appear in person or by telephone if he wishes to be heard to protect his interests on October 4, 2017 at 2:00 a.m./p.m.
- b. That this Order of Publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Roanoke Times newspaper located in the City of Roanoke, Commonwealth of Virginia.
